Case No.:

Plaintiff,

Jury Trial Demanded

- against -

COMPLAINT

Salz Group LLC, Salz Group Taco Bell Brooklyn LLC, Salz Group Taco Bell LLC, Salz Group WDY Queens LLC, Salz Group WS Queens LLC, and Suhail Sitaf,

Defendants.

Plaintiff Calvin Garner (“Plaintiff” or “Garner”), on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Levin-Epstein & Associates, P.C., upon personal knowledge as to himself and upon information and belief as to others, brings this complaint against Defendants Salz Group LLC, Salz Group Taco Bell Brooklyn LLC, Salz Group Taco Bell LLC, Salz Group WDY Queens LLC, Salz Group WS Queens LLC (collectively, the “Corporate Defendants”), and Suhail Sitaf (the “Individual Defendant”, and together with the Corporate Defendants, the “Defendants”), and states as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking recovery, for himself and all other similarly situated individuals, against Defendants’ violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and violations of Articles 6 and 19 of the New York State Labor Law (“NYLL”) and their supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

2. Plaintiff seeks injunctive and declaratory relief and to recover unpaid overtime wages, liquidated and statutory damages, pre- and post-judgment interest, and attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, and the NYLL's Wage Theft Prevention Act ("WTPA").

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this case pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1337, and has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims under the NYLL pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

4. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because his claims arise under the FLSA.

5. Venue is proper in this District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c), because all events relevant to this action occurred in this District, and the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

DEFENDANT SUHAIL SITAF

40. Defendant Suhail Sitaf is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business within this judicial district during the relevant time period.

41. Defendant Suhail Sitaf is sued individually and in his capacity as an owner, officer and/or agent of the Corporate Defendants.

42. Defendant Suhail Sitaf possesses or possessed operational control over the Corporate Defendants, or controlled significant functions of the Corporate Defendants.

43. Defendant Suhail Sitaf determined the wages and compensation of employees, including Plaintiffs, established the schedules of employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

44. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Suhail Sitaf was and is an employer within the meaning of the 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and NYLL Section 190(3), and employed employees, including Plaintiffs.

DEFENDANTS CONSTITUTE JOINT EMPLOYERS

45. Defendants own, operate and/or control the fast-food restaurant, known as "Taco Bell" located at: 58 Fulton St. New York, NY 10038.

46. The Individual Defendant possesses operational control over the Corporate Defendants, possesses an ownership interest in the Corporate Defendants, and controls significant functions of the Corporate Defendants.

47. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

48. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiff's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

49. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, and are Plaintiff's (and all similarly situated individuals') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

50. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff and/or similarly situated individuals.

51. Upon information and belief, the Individual Defendant operates the Corporate Defendants as either an alter ego of himself, and/or fails to operate the Corporate Defendants as entities legally separate and apart from themselves, by, among other things:

- a. failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate the Corporate Defendants as separate and legally distinct entities;
- b. defectively forming or maintaining the Corporate Defendants, by among other things failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records;
- c. transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants;
- d. operating the Corporate Defendants for their own benefit as the majority shareholder;
- e. operating the Corporate Defendants for his own benefit and maintaining control over them as closed corporations or closely controlled entities;

- f. intermingling assets and debts of their own with the Corporate Defendants;
- g. diminishing and/or transferring assets of the Corporate Defendants to protect his own interests; and
- h. other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

52. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and NYLL.

53. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff's services.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

54. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals are individuals who have worked for Defendants in similarly-titled, hourly paid position, during the statutory period.

55. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals all shared similar job titles, training, job descriptions and job tasks, during the statutory period.

56. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants.

57. Plaintiff was employed as a crew member at the "Taco Bell" fast-food restaurants located at: 58 Fulton St. New York, NY 10038.

58. From approximately November 2019 through and including June 2020, Plaintiff worked six (6) days per week as follows: either approximately 5:00 p.m. or 6:00 p.m. to 3:00 a.m. (i.e., 9 to 10 hours per day), for a total period of approximately 54 to 60 hours during each of the weeks, respectively.

59. From approximately November 2019 through and including November 31, 2019,

Defendants paid Plaintiff $16 per hour.

60. From approximately December 2019 through and including June 2020, Defendants paid Plaintiff $17 per hour.

61. Throughout the relevant period, Defendants had a policy and practice commonly known as “time shaving”. Specifically, Defendants would only pay Plaintiff for some – but not all hours worked, by forcing Plaintiff to “clock-out” at around 2:00 a.m., i.e., despite the fact that Plaintiff’s shift would often conclude around 3:00 a.m.

62. As a result, Plaintiff, and other similarly situated employees, were forced to work off the clock, without pay, during this period.

63. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees.

64. Plaintiff was required to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week, but never received an overtime premium of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for those hours.

65. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff regarding wages are required under the FLSA or NYLL.

66. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

67. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff of his rate of pay, employer’s regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL § 195(1).

68. At all relevant times, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at the rate of one and one-half times his hourly wage rate for hours worked in excess of forty per workweek.

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

69. Plaintiff brings the First and Second Claims for Relief as a collective action pursuant to FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b), on behalf of all non-exempt persons (including but not limited crew members) employed by Defendants on or after the date that is three years before filing of the Complaint in this case, as defined herein (“FLSA Collective Plaintiffs”).

70. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are and have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and are and have been subject to Defendants’ decision, policy, plan and common policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines and rules willfully failing and refusing to pay them at the legally required overtime wage for all hours worked in excess of forty hours per work week. These claims of the Plaintiff are essentially the same as those of the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

71. The First and Second Claims for Relief are properly brought under and maintained as an opt-in collective action pursuant to under FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b). The FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are readily ascertainable. For purpose of notice and others related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from the Defendants. Notice can be provided to the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs via first class mail to the last address known to Defendants

72. Plaintiff reserves the right to re-define the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs prior to notice or collective certification, and thereafter, as necessary.

FIRST CLAIM (FLSA – Unpaid Overtime Wages, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq.)

73. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

74. At all relevant times to this action, Plaintiff is a covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the FLSA.

75. Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular rate at which Plaintiff was employed for all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek pursuant to the overtime wage provisions set forth in the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, et seq.

76. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which he is entitled under the FLSA.

77. Defendants willfully violated the FLSA by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

78. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the FLSA, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, is entitled to recover his unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

SECOND CLAIM (NYLL – Unpaid Overtime Wages)

79. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

80. Plaintiff is covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the NYLL and supporting New York Department of Labor ("NYDOL") Regulations.

81. Under the NYLL and supporting NYDOL Regulations, Defendants are required to pay Plaintiff one and one half times the regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage, for all hours they worked in excess of forty.

82. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which he is entitled under the NYLL.

83. Defendants willfully violated the NYLL by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

84. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover his unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

THIRD CLAIM
(NYLL WTPA– Failure to Provide Wage Notices)

85. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

86. The NYLL and the WTPA require employers to provide all employees with a written notice of wage rates at the time of hire.

87. In violation of NYLL §195 (1), Defendants failed to furnish to Plaintiff at the time of hiring, or whenever their rate(s) of pay changed, with a wage notice containing the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other, allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer in accordance with NYLL §191; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law.

88. Due to Defendants' violations of NYLL §195 (1), Plaintiff is entitled to recover his liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-b).

FOURTH CLAIM
(Violation of the Wage Statement Provisions of the NYLL)

89. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

90. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a statement listing each of the following the dates of work covered by the payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; the number of regular hours worked; the number of overtime hours worked, as required by the NYLL § 195(3).

91. As a result of Defendant's violation of the WTPA, Plaintiff is entitled to damages of at least $150 per week during which the violations occurred.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, respectfully requests that this Court enter a judgment:

- a. authorizing Plaintiff at the earliest possible time to give notice of this collective action, or that the Court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have up through the extent allowable under the statute of limitations and including the date of issuance of court-supervised notice, been employed by Defendants as nonexempt employees. Such notice shall inform them that the civil notice has been filed, of the nature of the action, of their right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied premium overtime wages;
- b. certification of this case as a collective action pursuant to the FLSA;
- c. issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), to all similarly situated members of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and appointing Plaintiff and his counsel to represent the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs;
- d. declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of the FLSA, the NYLL and the NYDOL regulations;
- e. declaring that Defendants violated the notice statement pay provisions of the

NYLL and WTPA;

- f. declaring that Defendant violated the timely pay provisions of the NYLL;
- g. awarding Plaintiff unpaid overtime wages;
- h. awarding unpaid wages under New York State law for failure to pay timely wages;
- i. awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to the total amount of wages found to be due;
- j. awarding Plaintiff statutory damages as a result of Defendants' failure to furnish accurate wage notice pursuant to the NYLL;
- k. awarding Plaintiff pre- and post-judgment interest under the NYLL;
- l. awarding Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and the costs and disbursements of this action; and
- m. Such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.
